

"Satan and the Origin of EVIL" Ezekiel 28:11-17

About 2500 years ago, God briefly pulled back the curtains of Pre-History to reveal to Ezekiel the origin of all evil. He wrote what he saw for our benefit.

Ezekiel 28 is about 2 persons:

- the _____ of Tyre - 28:1-10 – a _____ who thought he was God.
- the _____ of Tyre - 28:11-17 – a _____ who thought he was God.

1. This Archangel was the highest of God's Creation in _____, _____ and _____. Ezekiel 28:12-13, Jude 9
2. He had the most favored position as the _____ who _____ the throne of God. Ez. 28:14
3. The "Shining One" (_____) began to believe he was more important than God, which produced the first sin Ez. 28:17
4. PRIDE always
 - _____ v.17
 - causes one to focus on _____ . Isaiah 14:13-14
 - causes one to not _____.
 - always brings about a _____. Isaiah 14:12
 - is _____ by God. Prov. 6:16-19
5. Lucifer persuaded _____ of the _____ to join him in rebellion. Rev. 12:4
6. The rebellion was quickly _____, since Satan ("the _____") is a _____ being. Ezekiel 28:13-14, 17
7. God's had a Choice:
 - A. _____ Satan with brute force?
 - B. Or _____ him to produce _____.
8. He and his followers were _____ to _____.
Eph. 2:2, John 14:30, Rev. 12:7-9 Rev. 12:12, 20:10
They have a _____ awaiting them.
9. In the meantime:
 - A. A small planet in the universe called _____ became the _____.
 - B. The focus of the battle was on a new race of beings called _____ . Genesis 1:26-31

- C. Satan goes forth on this planet with great _____ (Rev. 12:12)
_____. (Rev. 12:17)
- D. He dominates the _____ of _____. Luke 4:6
- E. He seeks their _____ from God and their
_____. 1 Peter 5:8
- F. He hates all mankind, because they are made in the _____ of
God. But especially he hates _____ and _____.
Rev. 12:4-6, 13
- G. But he is restricted and can only operate by _____
_____. Job 1:12, 1 Cor.10:13